Gold Mystery Enlivens The Forum

Liveliest Discussion Of The Season Provoked By Noted Economists Speech

Bruce Johnson's introductory address on "the mystery of money" precipitated the liveliest discussion of the Sierra Madre Forum's season Tuesday evening at the city hall when he answered the question, "why did they bury the gold?" It was the first of a series of discussions of the American monetary system at the Forum by the eminent Pasadena economist that promises to be unusually interesting and to attract widespread attention.

Mr. Johnson told his auditors that "these programs are your programs, and if we differ in our view I hope you tell me so."

And they did! Comments flew thick and fast and President Percy Poore Sheehan was kept hopping to maintain order and keep everybody from talking at once.

Mr. Johnson gave a scholarly outline of the U. S. banking system from the time 33 year old Alexander Hamilton, bravely took over the gigantic task of paying off $50,000,000 of indebtedness of the young republic, and induced wealthy individuals to establish private banking systems, issue credit and bolster the shaky credit of the fledgling States, until the present day when a mid-as-like government buries vast sums in steel vaults at Fort Knox, Ky.

The reason why the government buries the gold is simply because it protects its valuables the same as an individual hires a safety deposit box for his money and jewels, Mr. Johnson stated.

A hundred and fifty years ago private individuals had the wealth, today the government has it all, which may result in world-shaking changes in the monetary system, he opined.

Time did not permit the answering of many interesting questions propounded from the floor by Webster Vannier, Leland Fogge, and Elmer Pulling, relative to government finance and bonds, but these will be answered next Tuesday night, Mr. Johnson promised, when he will tell just "how much gold is worth."

So, say Forum officials, if you are interested in finding out the secrets and intricacies of government finance and the monetary system, and have often wondered why gold is valuable and copper and tin isn't, then by all means attend next Tuesday's meeting to hear Mr. Johnson explain it in a simple, understandable but vivid way in the second installment of "the mystery of money."

Drama Guild Will Present Two Plays At Little Theatre

Lights will twinkle outside the Little Theatre in Windsor Lane next Friday night at 8:15 p.m. and inside will be the usual scurrying back and forth before the curtain rises on a one-act mystery farce to be presented by the Drama Guild. Following the farce will be another one-act play but the type of this play was not announced.

In the cast of characters of the two plays are Eddie Ranahan, Jim Ginchick, John Henson, Bill Morago, Sherman Henson, Donald Williams, Donald Miller, John O'Grady, Norma Sexton, Wally Brown and Irene Lloyd. Dolores Barthold will give one of her clever monologues.

Another Writer Of Note Joins The Local Colony

The serenity of Sierra Madre has been recognized by another admirer, Mrs. J. F. Wadhams of Sioux City, Ia., who has taken up her abode at 502 West Highland avenue.

Mrs. Wadhams is a poet, composer and writer of no small ability, and has accomplished some outstanding work in her many fields of endeavor. In seeking a winter sunshine-land, she feels she has been inspired in her selection of Sierra Madre, for she says the grandeur that nature has bestowed upon the village should be conducive to the writing of masterpieces. Last year she won in the National Poetry contest from among 9,000 contestants. Her verses are included in the Year Contemporary Book of Verse published by Avon House. The other waves of Sioux City also carry the talent of Mrs. Wadhams to a large following under the caption "Poetry."

A pageant written for 1800 Girl Scouts, by her, was produced last year in Sioux City's beautiful natural bowl.

Although this charming newcomer does not know anyone in Sierra Madre, she is already a subscriber to THE NEWS, owing to the general setup of the paper, and what she terms its splendid type of journalism. Mr. Wadhams hopes to be able to join his wife in California in the near future.

Local Kiwanians To Celebrate Club's 10th Anniversary

Founding of the Sierra Madre Kiwanis Club ten years ago will be celebrated Tuesday night, January 25, when Kiwanians and their ladies gather at the Woman's Clubhouse for dinner, dancing and a novel revue staged by Pat West.

Charter members who still actively participate in club affairs and who are responsible for the celebration are Rev. A. O. Pritchard, Charles B. Klunk, Waverly E. Pratt, Frank Spencer, and R. C. Copenhagen.

Charles B. Klunk and Frank Spencer head the committee and it is expected that many prominent Kiwanians of this district will be present, including the installing officers who assisted in organizing Sierra Madre's Kiwanis Club.

Drama Guild To Include All Ages

Ambitious Program Calls For Large Community Organization

Sierra Madre aims to have a cultural center of the arts that some day will rank with the Pasadena Community Playhouse according to a dramatic program involved in reorganization of the Junior Arts Guild into a more comprehensive group embracing adults of all ages.

Out of the Junior Guild originally founded by Mrs. Florence Eakman and carried on by her son successfully until forced to relinquish active control due to ill health, has arisen a plan to formulate a group of adults in a program of dramatics, dancing, music and physical culture.

Mrs. Mildred Jones, WPA director, widely known for her original monologues, and radio work, will be in charge of the dramatic teaching of both the junior and senior groups. Mrs. Jones is recognized for her fine character parts among the Alhambra Civic Players productions and is retained by that group as its stock character actress.

To organize the senior group Mrs. Jones is calling a special meeting for all adults interested in dramatic work from the ages of 20 to 80 on Monday night, January 31, at 8 o'clock at the Little Theatre in Windsor Lane.

Classes in voice, diction, public speaking, skits and monologues will be given by Mrs. Jones, and she is very much interested in a Mother's group for producing one-act plays with women casts only. She states that combined membership of 150 must be maintained.

Ivan Karaloff, late of New York, and well known in Sierra Madre for his work in teaching the dance, is organizing classes in various types of dancing as an adjunct to the dramatic classes taught by Mrs. Jones. The dances taught in the new program will be beneficial to the body and develop poise, grace, posture, and rhythmic movement. These dances will include the various folk dances, and for amusement there will be the Virginia Reel, square dances, the

Sheriff's Aide Urges Parental Help With Delinquent Youth

Edmonde L. Greene, of the sheriff's office was chief speaker at a "Fathers Night" meeting of the Sierra Madre P.T.A. at the school auditorium last night.

Mr. Greene outlined the work being done by the sheriff's juvenile bureau since its inception in 1931. He told what is being done for delinquent youth and how the parent might and should aid.

On the program with Mr. Greene were Frances Parks, personality radio singer of Hollywood, who was accompanied in her numbers by Leslie Adams.

Nadine Mason Steps Up; Copeland New Times Man Here

Nadine Mason, who has covered the Sierra Madre and surrounding territory for the Los Angeles Times for the past three years, was transferred Monday to city desk. Because of her splendid work as a reporter and feature writer on the correspondence job she is being given the opportunity of acting as the paper's chief "sob sister."

Local clubs, civic leaders and just plain "human interest" individuals wish her the best of luck, and extend their sincere appreciation for the cooperation she has given them.

John Copeland, formerly a reporter on THE NEWS, has taken over the Sierra Madre-Monrovia-Arcadia territory and may be reached by phone at Sierra Madre

City To Sign Three-Way Fire Pact

Agreement Will Obviate Necessity For Purchase Of Costly Equipment

City officials and local insurance agents estimated yesterday that the 15 per cent reduction in fire insurance rates which became effective in Sierra Madre with the advent of the new year will mean a saving to local citizens of an amount almost equivalent to the annual cost of maintaining the volunteer department. This latter cost during the last fiscal year was $4084.54 and the savings on insurance guaranteed for the current calendar year is conservatively placed at $3,500.

Incidentally it has developed that the three city agreement between Sierra Madre, Arcadia and Monrovia looking to the co-operation of their fire departments in case of emergency had no little to do with the underwriters decision to lower the rate in all three cities. In the case of Sierra Madre the fine condition of its water lines was a factor, too, though unstinting praise in given the local fire department for its contribution in the way of efficiency. Because of these various factors the per capita fire loss has been held to an inconsequential figure and Sierra Madre enjoys the distinction of being the only city of its size or nearly its size in the State to enjoy the insurance rates now prevailing.

The firemen at a meeting Friday night recommended that the city council sign the agreement with Arcadia and Monrovia and make it immediately effective. This will undoubtedly be done at next Wednesday's meeting of the council.

This additional guarantee of fire protection requires that upon call one or two of the cities will go to the assistance of a third in the event of a fire that gets beyond control or gives promise of doing so.

There is the further guarantee, however, that, especially in case of Sierra Madre, no outlay for additional expensive fire apparatus will be required so long as the agreement between the cities is in effect, the present equipment being held adequate to meet any local situation except a most unusual emergency.

Citys Fete Is Rushed Along By Weather

Earliest Festival In History Is Indicated As Trees Burst Into Bloom

Unless Jack Frost suddenly breaks up the long spell of June weather the Southland has enjoyed with only the light rains that have fallen to distinguish the winter from the summer months, Sierra Madre must prepare for the earliest Wistaria Fete in its history, according to horticultural authorities. And the weather experts say there is nothing to indicate the arrival of either short, heavy frosts or a protracted cold spell.

Buds that appeared on the great vine at the Wistaria Gardens before 1937 faded out have attained considerable size. Other vines throughout the city that are exposed to the full sun are also showing good sized buds.

The weatherman seems to have scarcely more than glanced at the

Wilson Hi To Graduate 12 Local Pupils

Sierra Madre Students Conspicuous In Midwinter Exercises Next Friday

A dozen Sierra Madreans are among the 82 members of the graduating class of Woodrow Wilson Junior High school for which graduating exercises will be held in Willard auditorium Friday evening, January 28. Two Sierra Madreans, Dorothy Levinson, president of the graduating class, and Alan Wood will have conspicuous parts in the exercises, Miss Levinson giving the class greeting and Wood appearing on the program for a reading. Sierra Madre boys and girls will also be outstanding figures in the class banquet to be held next Wednesday evening.

Sierra Madre members of the class are, Miss Levinson, Milton Roy Blackman, William M. Brown, Harry LeRoy Embree, Samuel S. Embree, Elma Norine Fix, Donald H. Jackson, M. Kathleen Pulling, David R. Sheriff, George A. Thompson, Alan Stevenson Wood and John J. Yule.

At the senior banquet to be held in Willard Cafeteria next Wednesday evening, Dorothy Levinson will be toastmistress and Kathleen Pulling will read the class will. Alan Wood will sing class will. Allen Wood will sing in a mixed quartette the same evening.

Lorne Pratt ran for president of the student body Wednesday and was defeated by only a small margin. Anna Sue Adwell won leadership of the girls welfare and a former Sierra Madre boy, John Ashmore won the boys welfare office.

James Sakomoto is in charge of a lost and found department just established at the school to aid students in recovering lost articles.

At a recent assembly Gloria Dougherty, Irene Lloyd, Mary Lou Lovejoy and Marjorie LaLonde entertained the students with dance and song.

Three Sierra Madreans are in the cast of the two plays "Starbright" and "A Young Man's Fancy," presented by the February graduating class Thursday afternoon and scheduled for another performance tonight in Willard Auditorium. Alan Wood takes the part of Donald, and Sam Embree will play Mr. Hoofer in "A Young Man's Fancy." In "Starbright" Dorothy Levinson takes the part of "Marcia."

Machine Politics Due For Drubbing By Militant Woman

Much interest is being evinced in surrounding cities in the scheduled appearance of Mrs. Margaret Clark, Los Angeles Board of Education member and well known radio commentator, at the Wistaria Vine Gardens at 6:30 Sunday evening, who will speak on "Why Education."

Mrs. Clark is known for her militant attitude against "dirty" politics, especially in educational affairs, and she has been the consistent foe of machine politics all during her brilliant career.

Many persons outstanding in the educational and political world of nearby cities have made reservations at the Wistaria Vine, and it is whispered that at least one undercover man for a famous Los Angeles political figure will be present to hear what Mrs. Clark has to say.

All Branches Of The Postal Business Here Increased

Sierra Madre postal receipts for 1937 showed a five percent increase over 1936, according to a report just released by Postmaster R. O. Calkin.

The 1936 returns were $18,813.28 and in 1937 receipts were $19,820.91. Money orders issued for the year showed an increase of 13 per cent with $660 issued in 1937 against 7,666 for 1936.

Postal savings were up, according to the report, from $19,468 on deposit December 31, 1936 to $22,304 for the same time in 1937, an increase of 14 per cent.

There were 3,492 money orders paid in 1937 compared with 3,436 in 1936, an increase of one and one-half percent.

Educational Hurdles For Athletes

Cal-Tech Coach Tells Kiwanians Of Responsibility Resting On Parents

"Do colleges educate athletes?" is a question that has occurred to many people, and it was frankly answered when W. L. Stanton, head athletic coach of Cal-Tech, addressed the Kiwanis Club Tuesday night.

"It is doubly hard for an athlete to obtain an education today because the task of going through school is made too easy for him both in a scholastic and financial way," averred Mr. Stanton.

Even though the youth should ardently desire an education, Mr. Stanton pointed out, it is nearly impossible to get it because of the time and nervous energy consumed on the athletic field.

That athletes are not the only students coming out of college with diplomas but no education was shown by Mr. Stanton, who believes the education of youth depends upon two things. First, the institution itself with its physical plant and equipment, and second, upon the youth's desire for an education. If the latter does not exist no matter what material advantages the institution may offer the student will not profit by them.

The only hope for education, said Mr. Stanton, is for the parents and teachers to inculcate a love for learning, justice and liberty, and teach the child that those things can never be obtained except through hard digging. The burden of training the child really rests on the parents and not the school, for unless a love for education is fostered by the parents the advantages the schools offer are apt to be useless, he thinks.

That Kiwanians are faithful in attendance was pointed out when the average of attendance for 1937 was given as 95 per cent at Tuesday's luncheon meeting held in the Woman's clubhouse.

Dr. R. C. Simpson, program chairman, stressing the ideals of Kiwanis, told the members that each member should better inform himself concerning the aims and functions of Kiwanis and International Kiwanis, and should try to do a better job individually this year.

Season's Rainfall Less Than Half Of Last Year's

Wednesday's showers that brought joy to the whole Southland and the heavy downpour of Friday in the San Gabriel Valley, brought the season's rainfall here to a figure slightly below half of that recorded at this time a year ago. A showery Wednesday added only .11 of an inch, bringing the total up to 7.08 as compared with 15.62 last year. Col. H. B. Hersey thought last night it was improbable there would be more rain this week, much as it is wanted and badly as it is needed.

Thieves Strip Cars On The Streets

Petty thieves stripped spare parts from two automobiles Friday night, according to police reports.

A spare tire and wheel was taken from the car of W. S. Oakley, 90 Suffolk avenue, about 11:30 p.m. and two headlights were stolen from the coupe of Mrs. John R. Maluvius N. Baldwin avenue, sometime between 6 and 11 p.m. the same night.

Pasadena Orchestra Gives Third Free Concert To-morrow

Pasadena Civic Orchestra presents as vocal soloists for the third free public concert of its tenth season, the winners of the recent voice contest; Norman Durask, tenor, and Dan G. Strebel, bass. The concert at 8:15 p.m., to-morrow takes place in the Pasadena Civic Auditorium. Doors open at 7:30 p.m.

Water Tests To Determine City's Rights

Result May Cause Sierra Madre To Be Dropped As Defendant In Pasadena Suit

Less belligerent than when its officials brought suit against Sierra Madre and more than a dozen sister cities in the western end of the San Gabriel Valley to restrict their use of water, the City of Pasadena is bearing half the expense of a series of tests just begun to determine whether or not Sierra Madre is deriving its water supply from a basin separate and apart from the Raymond basin, from which Pasadena pumps.

Sierra Madre's officials and water experts have contended from the outset that there is a division between the Santa Anita basin, from which the local supply is derived, and the Raymond basin, source of Pasadena's and the supply of other cities made defendants in Pasadena's suit.

The Crown City legal staff and water officials have agreed that if Sierra Madre is able to support this contention it should be dropped from the list of defendants. The tests now in progress are expected to determine this. They will probably extend over a period of six weeks, but the result will have no direct bearing on Judge Collier's ruling on the demurrers filed by this and the other defendant cities to Pasadena's suit. A decision on these demurrers which were argued three weeks ago is expected momentarily.

Sierra Madre led off in the tests to prove the truth or falsity of its claim to having a separate basin. While the pumps at its wells were put at top speed, pumps of Pasadena, Arcadia and Monrovia were shut down and delicate instruments were used to note the effect, if any, on the water levels of the wells of the other participating cities. In turn Sierra Madre will join Arcadia and Monrovia in shutting down its pumps while Pasadena pumps water and measurements are taken to determine the effect, if any, on this city's underground supply.

This routine will be gone through repeatedly by the various cities at different times and under varying conditions until each city has pumped water, always under the watchful eyes of water engineers of the affected municipalities and disinterested water experts engaged for the purpose.

Engineers believe that if there is no noticeable effect upon the levels of Pasadena's wells while Sierra Madre is pumping, nor upon Sierra Madre's while Pasadena's pumps are at work, Sierra Madre's contention will be upheld. And engineers who have given the San Gabriel Valley's water sources intimate study over a period of years are confident this will be the final result.

Trade Body's Committees Appointed

New Secretary Will Be Named At Meeting Of Directors This Morning

A new secretary of the Chamber of Commerce will probably be named at a meeting today of the board of directors when it convenes at 7:30 a.m. in the City Hall.

Resolutions were passed at a meeting Monday night suggesting that applicants for the office meet with the directors this morning, thus enabling the directors to see their man "in action," and form an opinion of his ability.

Pat West, incumbent whose term expired recently will not be able to continue as secretary because of moving picture work ahead.

Resolutions adopted at Monday's meeting included one calling upon California Congressmen to see that the present fleet of fast passenger and freight vessels in inter-coastal trade be continued, especially since the vessels in question can be transformed into auxiliary tankers in case of war and used for the National defense.

Committee chairmen were announced by President R. C. Lewis as follows: water, E. E. Hitchcock; utilities and conservation, Paul Carter; education, R. O. Calkin; city planning and highways, R. C. Lewis.

W. L. Burr announced that any C of C member interested in playing in the Alhambra first annual friendly city golf tournament may obtain application entry blanks and complete information by calling him at the Edison Co. office. As many members of the Chamber of Commerce are golfers it is expected much interest will be shown in the tournament.

In a Social Way

HERSEYS ENTERTAIN THE MODERN PRISCILLAS

THE Modern Priscillas and their husbands were entertained on Thursday evening, January 13, at the home of Col. and Mrs. H. B. Hersey. The evening was given over to the playing of games in the living-room enhanced by glowing holly and poinsettias. Afterwards the group gathered around the buffet table, which was a thing of beauty with its decoration of soft yellows and pink camellias. A lace tablecloth over yellow, bore yellow candles and a white wreath bowl filled with large pink camellias whose petals were reflected in the mirror beneath. A white figure bent over the ensemble.

Mrs. L. A. Sherman and Mrs. E. D. Burbank poured. Among those present were Mrs. C. A. Allen, Mrs. E. D. Burbank, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Corlett, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Ayers, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Glidden, Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Gossard, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Hartman, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Hull, Mrs. Adria Johnson, Mrs. Milford Thompson, Mrs. E. E. Bacon, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Reavis, Mr.

JUNIOR WOMEN VISIT SANTA BARBARA

Five members of the Jr. Woman's Club jauntily boarded the Southern Pacific's Streamliner on Sunday for Santa Barbara. Luncheon preceded a visit to the city hall, and a tour of the famous Mission and other points of interest. The travelers were: Mrs. William Schwartz, Miss Angie Perlee, Miss Mary Frances Brain, Miss Muriel Tarr, and Miss Madeline Loomis, of Monrovia.

ATTRACTIVE OFFER FOR PIANO PUPILS

Mrs. A. D. Cain is offering piano lessons for $1.00 for the first 10 students enrolled. Her pupil, Frances Taylor, recently played for Shirley Temple in her new home in Brentwood. Studio, 71 East Alegria, telephone 1581.

BRUNSFELD ROOFING CO.

The Brunsfeld Roof Co., located in Pasadena at 1971 North Fair Oaks Ave., Phone N 1292 have been rendering the people of this vicinity the highest quality work at the most moderate prices. They have installed all of the latest and most improved equipment to take care of your roofing work in the most up-to-date and painstaking manner. Materials that the use are of the best grade and most economical.

There is a reason for the popularity of the Brunsfeld Roof Co. in Pasadena. Place your work with them and you will find out why they have become so popular. A delay of only a few days may often mean the loss of many dollars.

VIRGINIA HOEVEL WILL BE MARRIED ON MONDAY

The strains of wedding music will be heard next Monday morning, January 24 at 8 a.m. in St. Rita's church when Miss Virginia Marie Hoevel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Hoevel of 177 East Laurel avenue, and Nestor Cornelius O'Laughlin of 2045 North Garfield avenue, Pasadena, will be united in marriage.

Miss Hoevel came to Sierra Madre from Ft. Wayne, Indiana, in 1930. She was graduated from the Sacred Heart Academy in Los Angeles, and from Pasadena Jr. College. She is a member of the Newman Club and other organizations.

Miss Alice O'Laughlin will be maid-of-honor, and Richard Hoevel will serve as best man.

ENGAGEMENT TEA GIVEN AT BALBOA ISLAND

One of the prettiest social affairs on Balboa Island on Sunday was the engagement tea Mr. and Mrs. Paul Palmer gave in honor of the engagement of their daughter Jean, to William Stitt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold I. Stitt of 65 West Sierra Madre Blvd.

Miss Palmer formerly resided in Pasadena and attended Pasadena Junior College. Mr. Stitt was graduated from the same institution and claims a large coterie of friends here. He holds a position in the California Bank in Los Angeles. Two aunts and a present, Mrs. Alonzo Jessop and her daughter Jane, who drove up from Coronado, and Mrs. Ivan Buder of Los Angeles.

The table was a symphony in white sweet peas, gleaming silver and delicate china. About one hundred guests were bidden.

BETTY PETERSON AND EVERETT HINOJOS TO WED

Announcement was made this week of the forthcoming marriage of Everett Hinojos, son of Mrs. H. A. Hinojos of 249 Grove street, and Miss Betty Peterson of Hyatt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. F. Peterson of 565 West Montecito avenue, on Friday, January 28, at 4 o'clock a St. Rita's Church. Rev. Father Hyacinth Clarey will officiate.

The bride-elect is a graduate of the Compton Jr. College. The groom-to-be was graduated from Muir Tech at Pasadena. He has resided in Sierra Madre for seventeen years. He was Scout master at St. Rita's for four years and is a member of the Holy Name Society. He has been district agent for the Daily News in the northeast portion of the San Gabriel Valley, for twelve years.

The bridal couple will reside in Sierra Madre, occupying temporarily the family residence in the absence of Mrs. Hinojos, who is going north for a few months. Joe Hinojos, brother, will be best man. Miss Peterson will bring her attendants up from Hynes. Her aunt, Mrs. Rohrbough of Long Beach, will also accompany her.

WOMAN'S SOCIETY TO HAVE VALENTINE PARTY

The Woman's Society of the Congregational Church is planning a St. Valentine's party on February 1st. On February 15th, the regular Missionary luncheon and program will be given. Dr. Mary Stone, Chinese woman surgeon and missionary, will be the speaker. Mrs. J. E. Gossard will be chairman of the day.

COUMBS TO ENTERTAIN AT LOS SERRANOS CLUB

A smart dinner dance will be given tomorrow evening by Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Coumbe of 521 Alta Vista Drive at Los Serranos Country Club in Chino. Among those present will be Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Gardiner of Santa Anita avenue, Miss Betty Smith of Plinridge and her escort, Jay Coumbe, Mr. and Mrs. John Stoltz of Pasadena; Warren Watkins of Los Angeles and the lady he is suiting from Los Angeles, Miss Carole Coumbe, besides the hosts.

SURPRISE PARTY FOR MRS. RUTH KREITZER

One of the attractive surprise parties of late date was that given by Bernice Kreitzer of 171 North Adams street in honor of her mother, Mrs. Ruth Kreitzer. Decorations were artistically carried out in the flowers of the season. Refreshments were served after which Mrs. Fred Shapiro read the interesting book, "Russian Mother."

Those present included Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shapiro, Mrs. Harry Singer, Mrs. Sam Sirvan, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Levine, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Kreitzer, besides the guest-of-honor and hostess.

BETHANY GROUP HONORS OUTGOING PRESIDENT

A surprise luncheon was given by the Tabithan Sewing Group of Bethany Church on Tuesday in honor of Mrs. A. E. O'Banion, outgoing chairman.

Many lovely gifts were presented her in appreciation of her splendid work during her two year's regime. Mrs. Elmer Thompson, who originated this alert agency and developed it from a mere work committee into the present organization, took her place again at its helm as the incoming chairman.

The decorations were beautifully carried out.

MRS. ROBERTSON HOSTESS TO JUNIOR CLUB LEADERS

Especially lovely and springlike was the tea with which Mrs. J. H. Robertson of 371 Adams street honored 16 members of the executive board of the Junior President's Alumni, Sunday afternoon at Wistaria Vine Gardens. A large table arranged to facilitate conversation had as its guests-of-honor Mrs. Rex Harbert, Jr., chairman of Los Angeles district, of Monrovia, and Miss Virginia Brown, Jr., president of Los Angeles district, of Los Angeles. Other guests were from the various towns in the district.

A heartfelt interest, deeper than that, even, of a hostess, was displayed by Mrs. Robertson, for the large groups of active Juniors

Walter Young of Beverly Hills; Mrs. Perry Brown, Miss Ethel Kistle, Miss Chizuko Wada, Miss Haruko Izumo, Miss Shoko Murase, Mrs. Suzuki, Mrs. Hirose, and Mrs. Kimihara of Los Angeles.

TRAVELERS TO FAR PLACES GIVE FAREWELL PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. R. Behrens of West Alegria avenue were dinner guests on Tuesday evening at the farewell party given by Frank C. Williams and his mother, Mrs. Emma Williams, who are leaving for New York to start their eight weeks' tour of South America. Accompanying them will be Mr. and Mrs. Fred R. Stratemeyer, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Buerling, the latter couple going as far as Cincinnati, remaining there until the other members of the party return.

SOCIAL NOTES

An interesting dinner-party was given Monday evening by William Schwartz at Wistaria Vine Gardens in honor of 11 members of the Conservation Division of the Pasadena Post of the American Legion. The group attended the meeting of the American Legion in the City Hall afterwards.

The Eteri Club met Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Jean Weeks of 171 East Grand View avenue. Miss Natalie Romans, leader of the Bible Study Class, conducted the group in study. A social hour was enjoyed afterwards.

Mrs. R. Behrens of West Alegria avenue was a bridge-luncheon guest of Mrs. Norman Osborne of Eagle Rock, last Thursday. The theme was carried out along the New Year's idea.

Mrs. A. J. Lynn of 625 Manzanita avenue was hostess recently to old friends, Mrs. Louise Williams of Southgate, Mrs. William Emmett, and Boyd Williams. Mrs. Williams later departed for Salt Lake City. Sunday the Lynns entertained Mr. and Mrs. Jack Westcott of South Gate.

Girl Tennis Champion Visits Here

Mary K. Browne, of Cleveland, former tennis champion of the United States, arrived Thursday by motor to spend the next two months visiting her sister, Mrs. Ruth B. Irish, 135 E. Laurel avenue, and seeing the sights of Southern California.

Miss Browne, after turning professional toured the United States with Suzanne Lenglen, French tennis star, in 1926, in company with her sister, Mrs. Irish. She also recalled playing exhibition matches in Sierra Madre on the estate of Mrs. W. J. Lawless during the world war while touring with Mollie Mallory for the benefit of the Red Cross.

Tennis is not the only sport at which Miss Browne excels for she is also of championship calibre in the world of golf. She attained the rare distinction of reaching the finals in two national tournaments of golf and tennis, several years ago, and was just recently cited because of it by John Hix in his "Strange as it Seems" syndicated column.

While in the Southland, Miss Browne expects to compete in the Women's Midwinter Golf Tournament sometime next month to be held at the Los Angeles Country Club.

WINTER VISITOR DECIDES TO MAKE HIS HOME HERE

Mr. Lauren Maltby of Chicago, Ill., was a dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Lieben of 632 W. Montecito avenue on Sunday. Mr. Maltby intends to send for his family soon and settle in Sierra Madre permanently. This will be a great joy to the Liebens, who are old friends.

Leading Books Of The Day, Including Lee Shippey's New Novel Are Added To Library's Circulating List

Lee Shippey's new novel, "The Great American Family" is among the many interesting new books just added to the circulating list of the Sierra Madre public library, along with Stuart Cloete's "Turning Wheels," the much discussed South African book, and Clare Boothe's play, "The Women," that will soon be on the boards in Los Angeles, and that is said to disclose all of the women's feline traits.

Other new books catalogued for this month are "Death Over Hollywood," Saxby; "To See Ourselves," Field; "Los Empires," Chevigny; "They Seek a Country," "Famine," O'Flaherty; "Short Stories," Mansfield; "Enemy Gods," LaFarge; "Imperial City," Rice; "Katrina," Salminen; and "Flowering Aloe," Stevenson.

LEGIONNAIRES WILL BOOST CONSERVATION

Conservation committee members of the American Legion, Sierra Madre Post 297, will meet January 28, in the Legion Hall, 131 North Marengo avenue, Pasadena, with Frank Drew, chairman of the State Legion Conservation Commission, presiding, to discuss plans for a statewide conservation program.

This will be the first of two major gatherings, which Mr. Drew is calling this year. The purpose of the meeting is to start a movement in California to make the public conservation conscious, according to Mr. Drew.

THINKING ABOUT A NEW Refrigerator?

is silent, saves more because it freezes with no moving parts

THE Gas REFRIGERATOR GIVES YOU...

- Low running cost
- Years of satisfaction
- Lasting efficiency
- Savings that pay for it

Are you planning soon to get your second refrigerator? Or your first? In either case, you can profit by the experience of more than a million families who own Servel Electrolux. They have found that the gas refrigerator is always silent, always economical. And here's why: There are no moving parts in the entire freezing system of a Servel Electrolux. Nothing to wear or become inefficient, nothing that can make noise.

Save WITH THE REFRIGERATOR YOU HEAR ABOUT— BUT NEVER HEAR

Love's secret is to be always doing things for God, and not to mind because they are such very little ones.—F. W. Faber.

The... Watch Tower

By Perley Poore Sheehan

IN ONE of Algeon Blackwood's stories there's an effie little girl who, whenever asked what time it is, answers simply and seriously that the time is now. Not what the clock says, nor even the calendar. The time is now. Curiously bringing to mind George Cuvier, the great French naturalist. Dead this hundred years, according to the books. But still going strong, we're sure. Ask him, and he'd also answer most likely that the only hour and date he knows about is now. Now—that was the date of his birth; Now—the date on his tombstone; and, for that matter, the date of all that ever was.

ALTHOUGH no man, before or since, ever delved deeper into the geologic past. Dreamer. Great savant. Give him a rock with just a bit of nameless fossil showing on the surface and soon he'd be seeing the animal complete—as Michael Angelo, say, saw Moses in the block of marble. We used to know a chemist in Paris, learned and alcoholic, grossly sentimental, who'd studied under a man who'd studied under Cuvier. But, an apostolic succession, so to speak, mystical and divine. For when that chemist spoke of Cuvier it was as if he heard great music—it was as if an archangel entered the room.

CUVIER himself; majestic and gentle. In familiar surroundings, too; for the room, which still had some aroma of magic about it, had once been his study. In one of those fine old buildings of the Jardin des Plantes, founded by Richelieu, where our chemist also had his study. It all came back to us; the room, the chemist, the spectral presence—archangelic, who was Cuvier, the naturalist. The chemist was telling us again how Cuvier's fondest dream had never been realized. The dream was this: To woo from flowers the secret of their coloration. Why the red rose? Why the yellow honeysuckle? Why the hue and scent of violets? Why all these from the same loam, same water, same sun.

WE'D been listening to young Martin Allen, a local boy, making clear to us the miracles of colored photography as now adapted to the printing trade. You've seen those perfect reproductions in the magazines—of flowers and landscapes, of people and things. Mr. Allen explained them with an art as brilliant and unconfused as that of his illustrations. But the miracle remained. Just as when his associate, Mr. Cummings, told how those pictures had been taken in the first place. Mirrors and filters and screens to find and fix and mix again the colors of the spectrum; acres of factory; million-dollar corporations. Meantime we kept an eye on the archangelic Cuvier. He'd brought a dandelion along. He was smiling. He appeared to have information he would have been glad to impart.

NO matter. No hurry. It's never too early, never too late. All time is now; once—that is—we've escaped from this world's illusion. But as we left the crowd at the Vine and went out into the dark, as we felt again that swift close intimacy of our Mother Earth at night, which is probably the oldest feeling known to man—his very first love and his last—we did feel that there was a wisdom, here was a faith and a charity, a sweetness and a mystery forever beyond all human invention. We thought of Browning's Fra Lippo Lippi.

REMEMBER? "This world is no blot for us or blank; it means intensely and means good; to find its meaning is my meat and drink." Well, that applies to our Martin Allens, of course, and our master-chemists in the field of light and photography like Mr. Cummings, as

While many citizens of the United States keep busy shoveling snow off their front sidewalks, residents of Riverside county will hold their annual combined county fair and Coachella Valley Date Fiesta at Indio from February 4 to 6. A special attraction for week-end tourists will be the annual Indio stampede featuring some of the West's best-known riders, ropers and bulldozers, February 5 and 6.

Refusal on Wednesday by the County Supervisors of a proposed allotment of $25,000 to be used in the perfume flower growing project has probably killed the entire project.

The Supervisors referred the perfume deal to the experimental division of the University of California.

Roger Jessup, chairman of the Board of Supervisors, and a group of county officials are conferring on plans to launch a drive for the erection of a $10,000,000 County Courthouse. Mr. Jessup says the county now pays an annual rental of $500,000 for overflow quarters to house county departments, and that the new building has been sorely needed since 1933, when the old one was condemned. It is proposed to raise the money by a bond issue, plus the $500,000 allocated to a new courthouse building by the County Law Library, and WPA grants.

Florence Monahan, superintendent of Tehachapi women's prison, says "Women need the lessons in cooperation and the sense of importance in 'belonging' that participation in group activities brings."

What about this high-powered, swiftly paced modern age we're living in? Does its feverish tempo produce a harmful effect upon children? Is it responsible for the jittery nerves of some of the high-strung youngsters we all know? In the opinion of Adrien Voinis, one of America's greatest sculptors, it does. "Go into any schoolyard," he said in a recent interview. "Look at the kids gathered there, the youngsters ranging in age from about 5 to 17 or 18 years. You'll find the same shortened torsos, the elongated legs and arms, that characterize our so-called modern art. You'll find their bodies and their minds so craving excitement that their eyes dart from object to object with lightning rapidity. These kids are living propagandists for haste, but they are losing the gift of living." This artist, however, is no reactionary, pining for lapsed, vander-scented days beyond recall. His attitude merits keen consideration from parents.

The air tragedies that have taken first place in the nation's news during the past week contained the chill and terrible drama of sudden death. They were news because they were melodramatically exceptional. Few people lifted more than an eyebrow a few days ago when an estimate was made of America's monumental death toll in traffic accidents in 1937. The toll, nationally, exceeded 40,000. Though government and airline statisticians can show that air travel has proved safer than motor vehicle travel, the very high costs of air trips, and an instinctive dislike of taking the first ride, still combine to keep the majority of Americans solidly earthbound.

There are approximately 200,000 railway bridges in the United States, built not only to cross streams but to eliminate highway crossings. If they were all placed end to end, they would extend 3,860 miles, a distance greater than from New York to Los Angeles.

Today America says "Good-bye to the melting pot!" The era of prodigious expansion when armies of alien immigrants poured into this country half a million to a million strong from 1850 up to the depression years, is now past history. Today the tide has passed its crest, as the just released figures of the U. S. State Department testify. During the last fiscal year, only 53,000 immigrants gained entry into the Land of Promise. This was a mere drop of seasoning in the Melting Pot compared to the gigantic legion of more than one and a quarter million immigrants admitted in 1907. Though America's period of geographical expansion has doubtless passed its apex, there remain open great, new fields to test the nation's mettle—conquering unemployment, enriching purchasing power, and lifting our living standards ever higher. Have no doubt of it, America still has great epics of expansion and growth to be written within her own borders!

The WEEKLY CONSTITUTIONAL

by MAX BERNES

The People's Protection

Have we any protection against acts unauthorized by our Constitution?

Under our Constitution, "we the people" are supreme. We are the principal and we create the Congress and make it our agent with power to act within the limitations we enumerate in our charter, but with no power to go beyond those limits. In addition we specifically prohibit it from certain acts.

Under these conditions, what recourse do "we the people" have if the Congress, as our agent, exceeds the limits we specify or enacts legislation which we specifically prohibit? If left to itself to determine such a case, the Congress naturally would approve its own acts. It would not pass an act and disapprove it. Thus the agent would authorize what the principal prohibits.

To prevent this, "we the people," in our Constitution, provide the simple means commonly provided where the principal challenges the acts of its agent in court. The court—in the case of our Constitution, a federal court and finally the Supreme Court—tries the case by hearing both sides. If the Court finds the agent's act in accordance with the agent's power, the act is upheld. But if the Court finds that the agent acted beyond his authority the Court so states, whence such act is declared unauthorized, and therefore void, or in other words unconstitutional.

If the Congress as the people's agent had power to exceed the people's Constitution, such a Constitution would be useless. To prevent this and protect ourselves against unauthorized acts by our agent, "we the people" make our Constitution "the supreme law" and we create and empower the Supreme Court to construe or pass upon it.

Copyright 1937 by Max Bernes

much as it ever did to the poet's meditative monk. It might have been spoken by all those who come to our round-tables at the Vine, whether to speak or listen; and to our Forums at the City Hall. It takes in all who'd like to come and can't—takes in all this old earth's children, though these still be just east of Eden in their stage of development or on Patmos with John.

BUT let's recover a certain other old phrase and make the most of it: "... That we may evermore dwell in him and he is us." Infinity in us; we are Infinity. Which means that All is Here and Forever is Now. Seriously. Too often we forget. These also may be our friends and neighbors: Moses, Jonah, Job—and all the prophets, all the saints, all the philosophers, mystics and poets; to come and go at our bidding. World without end right here in Sierra Madre; a world that means intensely and means good.

Hundred Deputies To Help Prepare Income Tax Forms

Facing an unprecedented volume of tax returns in the next sixty days, Nat Rogan, collector of internal revenue for Southern California, announced yesterday that a corps of over 100 deputy internal revenue collectors has been assembled to assist residents to file 1937 income tax forms.

Over 2,000,000 tax returns will pass through his office by March 15th, stated Collector Rogan as he sounded a warning to all taxpayers to file their returns immediately to avoid the anticipated last-minute rush. Income, social security, and various miscellaneous taxes all fall due within the sixty day period.

A branch office of the internal revenue service is located in the Federal building, Pasadena.

CITRUS GROWERS AND RANCHERS TO FIGHT FIRE WITH FIRE

By RALPH H. TAYLOR
(Executive Secretary, Agricultural Council of California)

(Editor's Note: This is the third in a series of articles by Ralph H. Taylor, veteran farm leader and representative of California's major farm cooperatives, dealing with the farm labor problem.)

THE best index to the temper of farm people with regard to the threat of "hot cargo," raised by city labor bosses, is found in the following straight-from-the-shoulder resolution, adopted at the California Fruit Growers and Farmers convention, held recently in San Jose.

"Whereas, the cities of California derive their prosperity and their main support from the farmers, and

"Whereas, the farmers of California are entitled to free access to the markets of all California cities, and

"Whereas, certain cities are permitting labor racketeers to establish boycotts against the sale or delivery of certain farm products, thereby raising the presumption that their citizens favor such boycotts,

"Now Therefore Be It Resolved, by the 70th Fruit Growers and Farmers convention that although we are opposed to boycotts in principle, we recommend that if any city persists in allowing any California farm products to be barred from its markets through boycotts or failure to protect the farmers in the delivery of their crops, that all the farmers of California consider seriously the advisability of launching united defensive boycotts against such city—upon the principle that no city which boycotts the products of farmers is entitled to the trade or support of farmers."

The California Farm Bureau Federation, the State Grange and other farm organizations have taken similar action.

In San Francisco, Oakland, Los Angeles and many other cities, employers have learned—by sad and costly experience—that their only defense against terrorism and unreasonable demands of power-maddened labor bosses is UNITED ACTION. A recent strike ordered in an Oakland department store quickly collapsed when a solid front of associated merchants announced they would close up immediately if the store was forced to shut down. In another city, threatened with a teamster union tie-up, merchants of the city united, took options-to-buy on a thousand trucks—and announced they would run their own trucking company, with armed guards on each truck, if the strike occurred. It was called off! In Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. General Public carried their own Christmas packages until an attempt to disrupt holiday parcel delivery was abandoned.

California agriculture can and should learn from the experience of city industries. The apparent strategy of the would-be labor czars, in their drive to "organize" agriculture, is to take over the farming industry one branch at a time. It is a program of attrition, starting with the weakest industries and working up until even- tually there would be a complete labor dictatorship.

When any branch of California agriculture is attacked, it must have the wholehearted financial, physical and political support of ALL California agriculture. If a general boycott of the offending union or city is required, agriculture must be prepared to order such a boycott—and make it stick!

Poem Of Local Bards Entered For The Pulitzer Prize

Lucia Trent and Ralph Cheyney's poem "Thank You, America!" has been selected by Suttonhouse, Inc., as its entry for the thousand dollar Pulitzer poetry prize. As this is the largest award in the nation, competition for it is intense and to be nominated is in itself a high honor and proof of towering merit. This book, which is in the Sierra Madre Public Library, is recommended by the Book Council of the Western Poetry League, whose official organ, "Horizons," is just off the press of the "Sierra Madre News" this week. In it Sierra Madre is well represented by Mrs. Leslie B. Wynne, of 273 Sturtevant Drive, and Mrs. Majella Green Petterson, of 565 West Montecito avenue, writing under her maiden name.

First place in a nation-wide contest for the best example of a new poetic form called "lanterne," is won by Mr. Wynne, as "modest and important."

Nina Willis Walter, of Alhambra, Cornelia Dadds of Riverside, and Nesby Round, of Monterey Park, are other members represented of the creative writing class conducted by Lucia Trent and Ralph Cheyney as part of the Pasadena public school system. It's run for 2 to 4 each Thursday afternoon in the recreation house in Sierra Madre Park, except the first Thursday of each month when the meeting is held in the evening. This class is free, open to all, with visitors warmly invited.

MASONIC LODGE WILL CONFER DEGREE

The Master Mason degree will be conferred upon a candidate at the local Masonic Temple, 33 East Sierra Madre Blvd., this next Tuesday evening, January 25th. Previous to the ritual a dinner will be served at 6:30 p.m. All Masons are most cordially invited to attend the ceremonies.

Prizes Offered For Best Photos Of Wistaria Vine

"Amateur" photographers are very often "expert" photographers if the facts brought out at the Wistaria Vine Gardens Sunday night are any criterion.

Meeting together in a round-table conference with Ernest Williams of South Pasadena and James M. Cummings and Martin Allen, experts in color photography, the amateurs held a picture clinic. Highly technical aspects of picture-making were discussed often to the complete bewilderment of the layman, but photographer or not, anyone could appreciate the beautiful photographs placed around the room.

Two prizes were finally decided upon—of $15 and $5 each for the best picture made on the grounds of the Wistaria Vine Gardens during the coming Wistaria fete, according to announcements by Perley Poore Sheehan, toastmaster of the evening.

Among the camera artists who exhibited work were Louis Zeigler, R. F. McGraw, Noreddin Adis, Joe Hinojos, E. E. Schaeffer, Francis P. Conard, Hal White, Cecil Sterling Price, Dick Stanton, Hal Roberts and R. C. Lewis. The "Y" Camera Club of Pasadena also submitted beautiful examples of the work of members.

Church Unity Urged At Meeting Of Woman's Society

The pattering raindrops on Tuesday did not prevent a good attendance at the luncheon of the Woman's Society at the Congregational church where everyone had a wonderful time. Inside the decorations were lovely. The program was excellent. Mrs. Warren Preston's section served luncheon. Mrs. George Morgridge struck a reverent note in the memorial she gave to Mrs. Clara Kortkamp, deceased member. And an impressive installation service for new members was conducted by Mrs. W. S. Hull, the candle-light ceremony being used.

Current events were handled by Mrs. H. C. Reavis, who stressed greater unity of churches here and abroad. Miss Lucille Sparks conducted the devotions. Miss Mae Fuller delighted all with her solo, "Standing on the Portals."

Carol Green Wilson's "Chinatown Quest," describing the work of Donaldina Cameron among the Chinese slave girls in San Francisco's Chinatown, was received with great interest. Mrs. W. H. Wilhelm gave the review.

OBITUARY

JULIAN LEAL

Julian Leal, 67, for 16 years a resident of Sierra Madre, passed away at his home, 65 Victoria Lane, January 14, following a short illness.

Rev. Arthur O. Pritchard conducted funeral services at Grant's Chapel, Monday, and interment followed at Sierra Madre cemetery. The funeral solo was sung by Esther Arrellanes. Palbearers were Louis LaLonde, Leonard Martinez, Julian LaLone, Adolph Sanchez, Edward LaLone and Herbert Lacey.

Mr. Leal is survived by his widow, Carrie LaLone Leal, whom he married in White Oaks, N.M., in 1897; two sisters, Mrs. A. LaLonde of Pasadena, and Mrs. Juanita Uderos of Denver, Colo. Born in El Paso, Tex., February 11, 1871, Mr. Leal resided in Texas and New Mexico for many years before coming to California.

LOUIS FARINACCI

Louis Farinacci, 71, of 276 Santa Anita Court, passed away at General Hospital, Wednesday morning, following an illness of several months.

Mr. Farinacci was a native of Italy, and had resided in Sierra Madre for 20 years. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Amy Farinacci, two brothers, and a daughter. Funeral arrangements have not as yet been made.

ROBERT AINSWORTH

Architect

"Isn't it beautiful," is the common expression when we pass a beautiful structure. However this supreme beauty is the result of careful planning and serious work on the part of an architect. Beauty to the businessman means increased business and to the home owner it means increased value.

The architect plays such an important part in the beauty of any structure that it should be entrusted only to one well versed in the field of practical experience as well as education, such as Robert Ainsworth. If you are contemplating building call him at Te 8641 or see him in the Central Bldg., Pasadena. —(adv.)

BIBBER EXTERMINATION CO.

The people of this community are fortunate in having at their service the Bibber Extermination Co., located in Pasadena at 1659 North Garfield Ave., phone St 6812.

They have for many years been doing expert extermination work in this part of the state and are considered outstanding experts in the line of exterminating pests of all kinds. They have installed all of the latest and most improved equipment to take care of your exterminating work to the highest degree of satisfaction at the most moderate price.

There is a reason for the popularity of the Bibber Extermination Co. Call them for an estimate and you will find out why they have become so popular. —(adv.)

RICHFIELD SERVICE STATION

HAL ELSMORE, Manager

The Richfield Service Station, located in Pasadena at 2520 East Foothill Blvd., the corner of East Foothill Blvd. and Santa Anita Ave., has attained a great popularity with the motorists of this entire community.

They have installed all of the latest and most improved equipment to serve their large list of satisfied patrons to the highest degree of satisfaction.

When you stop for gas they will dust off your car, wash your windshield, and check your oil, water, tires, and battery. They will also wash your car free when you have an oil drain and grease job done. Only high quality Richfield products are used. Call Wa 8509 and let them pick up your car for service.

On your next visit to Pasadena, let them fill your tank with "HI OCTANE," check your oil and your car will again be ready for many more miles of safe and economical driving. —(adv.)

CONTINUOUS SHOWS AT WASHINGTON THEATRE

Due to the many requests the management of the Washington Theatre has received for a matinee in the mid-week, and wishing to afford everyone an opportunity to see the splendid pictures booked to show soon at this popular playhouse, Bernie Loper, manager of the Washington, announces that starting Wednesday, January 26th with the showing of Eddie Cantor in "Ali Baba Goes to Town" and Jane Withers in "45 Fathers," a continuous performance will be run on Wednesdays until further notice. The show starts at 2, at popular prices.

Soon to be shown are Joan Crawford in "The Bride Wore Red," "Alcatraz Island," "Navy Blue and Gold," Joe E. Brown in "Fit for a King," Jeanette MacDonald in "The Firefly," Carole Lombard in "Nothing Sacred," Irene Dunne in "The Awful Truth," Paul Muni in the "Life of Emile Zola," and many other outstanding films.

FIRE FLAMES

By One of The Boys

A HEAVY rain prevented our outside drill Friday evening, but the discussions inside made up for anything that might have been lost at a drill. The firemen felt honored by having the responsibility of joining the "triple alliance"—a fire fighting compact with our neighboring cities, Arcadia and Monrovia. The members all agreed heartily in forming the alliance. The three cities joining together means that at any time when one or the other city needs help to fight a stubborn fire, one or the other or both can be called on for assistance.

Lowering of the insurance rates may not mean much to the citizens at first glance, but if they take time to figure it out, it means a tremendous saving.

Everywhere you go, the talk is horses and the fire department is no exception. Joe Swanson was telling the boys that he picked four winners for Friday, but when someone suggested that he treat the crowd, that same old story, "Yes—but I didn't play them," was heard.

A letter of resignation from Roy Walsworth was read at our meeting, much to the regret of all present. For business reasons he left the city and was compelled to give up his membership. He will be retained as an honorary member.

J. F. SADLER DRYGOODS STORE IS SOLD

The stock and fixtures of the J. F. Sadler Co., Sierra Madre's only dry good store, was sold Monday to the Los Angeles Board of Trade. The doors of the establishment, which was founded 25 years ago, remained closed during the week while stock is being taken preparatory, it is believed, to resumption of business by a new owner who will replenish and enlarge the stock and scope of the store. It is announced that the Sadler Co. was entirely solvent at the time of the sale and all outstanding accounts are to be paid the present owner. The Sadler business was established by J. F. Sadler in 1913.

WOMAN'S CLUB NOTES

"STREETS grant no diplomas and give no degrees, but educate with fatal precision." So writes Frederick Thrasher, author of books on the problems of the present day children. Mrs. Dorothy Pearson, chairman of the Child Welfare section of the Sierra Madre Woman's Club, told the section meeting held Wednesday.

Mrs. Pearson outlined a practical program for helping the children of the community, through recreational facilities, a system of foster homes, thus eliminating the institutionalism of an orphan's home; P.T.A. groups, and our school which much assume definite responsibility, and help in checking behavior problems early in life.

The matter of holding a dance occasionally, thus interesting the young folks here at home was discussed. Mrs. Pearson pointed out that the greatest danger lay in the fact that organizations, or institutions tend to put their own success ahead of the success of community interest.

Mrs. Cecily Allen mentioned plays which are soon to be produced in Pasadena—"The First Lady" and "The Idiot's Delight," and reviewed at length "The Women," a play which caused much comment in New York the past season.

Miss Lulu Moore, city librarian, gave an extensive list of new books, including mystery, Western fiction and non-fiction. Mrs. May Mason asked that members bring to the next literary section meeting, a list of ten books which they would "take to a desert island."

Mrs. Edward Tufts will give book reviews and present current events at the meeting which will be held January 26.

A. L. A. Activities

By Maybelle Caley Barker

PRESIDENT Florence Jensen and Orrella Stinman, past president, attended the district meeting at Altadena Monday evening when over fifty were initiated into that Auxiliary with an impressive ceremony.

A new chairmanship has been created in Department, that of chairman of the youth movement. This will cover the sponsoring of such organizations as Boy Scouts, Campfire Girls, Girl Scouts, etc. Edna Heart of Pasadena was appointed chairman for the 18th district. There will be no new chairmen appointed in the units as the community service takes care of this.

Co-operative Sales Chairman, Orrella Stinman displayed two very lovely trays made by the veterans of San Fernando hospital, one of which was won by Bertha Irvine.

We are happy to hear that our long-absent member, Edna Taylor, is back to her home in the canyon, after a severe illness of many weeks.

Mrs. Bonnie Roach representing the new Campfire groups was a welcome visitor. The Juniors are holding only one meeting a month from now on, meeting next the first Saturday in February.

After our busy meeting, the members adjourned to an artistically decorated supper table from which a delightful supper was enjoyed. Augusta Coates, hostess, presided graciously. Our next meeting will be held at the home of Bertha Irvine, Thursday evening, January 27th.

Round The Town

Mrs. Cooke were in Shanghai together last spring and have many memories of a city which is today but a shadow.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Garner of East Alegria avenue had as their dinner guests Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Davis of Oakland, after they completed their four-day visit to Arrowhead Lake. Mr. Davis is a nephew of the Garners and is one of the ace pilots on the United Airways planes flying from Oakland to Salt Lake City.

Mrs. S. C. Counce of 521 Alta Vista Drive left for San Francisco Monday on a short business trip.

Frank Moore of the Bookshop, with Pasadena friends, enjoyed a delightful Sunday at the Kellogg Arabian Horse Farm near Pomona. Several hundred spectators were present at the impressive horse show in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Butler of 129 West Alegria avenue, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Cooper of Pasadena on Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. McCullagh and daughter, of 223 West Laurel avenue, have moved from the lovely little colonial home of Miss Ella Shepherd Bush, which they have enjoyed so much to their very own home, the property formerly owned by Mr. A. R. Hinton and the late Mrs. Hinton, at 154 East Montecito avenue. The beautiful grounds of the latter place will afford the family a great source of pleasure in the days to come.

Mrs. Norma Knight Jones, of Pasadena, will conduct a healing meeting at the next regular session of the Unity Class at the Park House, Thursday, January 27 at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Alyce Anderson entertained Mrs. Norman H. Moore and little daughter, Virginia, and Miss Linton of Los Angeles at luncheon at the Wistaria Vine Monday.

We are so glad to see Mrs. J. S. Billheimer of 37 Suffolk Place, up again after her prolonged attack of la grippe.

Mr. and Mrs. William Lauren Rhoades, 529 West Highland avenue, returned home Thursday from several month's sojourn in San Francisco.

NOTES FROM CITY SCHOOLS

GRAMMAR SCHOOL

Miss Newton's 4-b class finished their model harbor in the schoolyard Monday and will soon launch their boats. They have 35 boats in all. In the meantime, they are working on a mural of the harbor.

Mrs. Adams' class is studying the interesting facts about California. Some of the children have noted over 200 items about the state's advancement.

Some unusually fine clay modeling came back from being glazed recently. A great deal of this work was done by the upper grades.

The season is making a sudden change in the art room from a winter mural to a tropical scene.

Two of the boys of Mrs. Wheeler's 6-A class have made crystal sets that really work, and tried them out before the class Wednesday. It was an exciting day for us.

ST. RITA'S SCHOOL

Friday afternoon an exciting game of basketball was played in the indoor court of the Congregational Church, between St. Josephs and St. Ritas boys' teams.

The first basket was made by Ralph Hippert, who scored at least five baskets during the game. Aress Emrie, captain of St. Ritas team, claimed three baskets during the play. It took Ralph to give final decision, as once again he made a basket, this time bringing the final score 14 to 12, in favor of St. Ritas.

The first C.Y.O. basketball game of the season for the girls at St. Rita's was played Monday, with St. Philip's team as their opponents. St. Ritas claimed honors for the day by a score 12 to 2.

Pupils of St. Ritas are enthused over the Seminary drive that is now under way. They are busily contriving ways and means to complete a unit of work on the major seminary. The grammar grades are to submit essays, pertinent to the subject, while the elementary grades hope to produce in clay modeling, or on the sand table, a miniature of the proposed seminary buildings. All are eagerly collecting clippings and pictures pertaining to this subject. In a few weeks a school paper will also be devoted to the seminary project.

SCHOOL BOARD AWARDS TWO CONTRACTS

The school board, Monday night awarded contracts to the Ward Nizer for application of fertilizer on the school grounds for the year at a cost of $104.58, and to John W. Lytle Co. for re-roofing the northwest deck. Bids for re-surfacing the tennis court were refused for future reference.

The board decided it would not assume accident insurance responsibility for persons or organizations renting the school auditorium.

STORK LEAVES TWINS FOR FORMER ANITA SANCHEZ

The stork visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Garcia of 36 Auburn avenue on Monday and added twin boys to the population of Sierra Madre.

The mother, who is doing well, was Anita Sanchez of East Highland avenue. A baby daughter of 14 months, Josephine by name, is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Catalina Garcia, in San Gabriel.

What A Girl Sees
Ramblin' 'Round

By Marjorie Hesse

THIS has been a whirlwind slapsdash week—a week of slapsdash week—a week of complete bewilderment... We sometimes wonder along with the rest of the world—just what everything is all about? ... Whither, little man (in this case woman) goest thou in such haste? ... We confess we really don't know very often.

We are much interested in the plans of the reorganization of the Drama Guild to include older people... and think of the idea of including dancing a grand one... for we have always been a devotee of dancing... and have been so unwise and impractical as to pay $7.00 an hour for instruction in our lighter—(literally)—and more forish days. Still, we do not regret money spent in dancing, for dancing can lift one to the highest, most spiritual plane... and the clean, lithe lines of a dancer's body are pure poetry to us... We would gladly pay our last dollar to sit in a gallery seat at the ballet any time... and for Ivan Karloff to teach his art for the tiny sum he asks in the Guild is a rather wonderful gesture, we think... Karloff was trained in the Royal Ballet of Denmark and danced with Fokine and Nijinsky... He has had studios in Los Angeles, Hollywood and New York... "Shorty" Steinberger is quite a picker of the ponies, we hear, but he picked one for us that had leaden feet... A Washington official advised a reporter who asked him a question the other day "to keep your ear to the ground but don't get ants in it" ... We hope Herman Livezy, the poet, who lives in W. Mira Monte, and has a view from his living room that we envy, doesn't forget the deal he made with us for his swivel chair... It is of early American design mounted on a swivel bottom... and looks as incongruous as a dignified old hoop-skirted lady in rubber boots... It is nice and homely... and we like homely men, chairs and dogs... for some crazy reason... If the fire department can't get under those swank white caps they wear the next time they put them on we won't be surprised for after all these compliments they have been handed for their efficiency and the reduction in fire rate because of it... we really don't blame them...

The other day we called at the Wistaria Vine in the course of our duties and found the entire personnel with very sad faces... we wondered what could be the matter and began a discreet inquiry... we found they were all heart-broken because of the old pepper tree that up and died on them... The recent warm weather has fooled many of the trees in the gardens. Some of the young peach trees are putting forth tentative blossoms... and others standing nearby have not shed their leaves at all this winter. Randall Perry, head gardener, and landscape artist, who is responsible for much of the beauty at the Vine Gardens, having laid out the shrubs and designed most of the landscape work and who tends and nurses the trees and plants as though they were his own children was puzzling over the problem of re-putting the roots of the old tree moving the roots of the old tree. Perry is an expert bridge player and goes in for tournaments... We believe our office has set some kind of a record this week... for the other day Ivan Karloff, whom we mention above, came in and was talking to us about dancing and demonstrated then there a number of his steps... the next day Jack Shearer, Sam Graham and Bill Schwartz came in and were telling us about the tiny one-inch mouth organ that Jack plays and Jack pulled it out of his vest... and gave us a demonstration of the wee thing that amazed us.

City's Fete Is Rushed Along By June Weather

calendar for peach, apricot, almond and quince trees are showing color, peach trees in some sections of the city, notably at Wistaria Gardens, being almost in full bloom. Appearance of blooms on the flowering peach variety have not attained so much attention, but here and there saucer peach trees are well in bloom, at least six weeks ahead of their normal schedule.

Cherokee and Brabant roses, ordinarily holding back their brilliance until March, have burst into bloom in many places, some having thrown out their first flowers before New Years. Many home gardeners report some roses that usually become dormant in November and December have continued to bloom right through the winter months. And it was just at this time a year ago that the Southland experienced the great freeze that struck terror to the hearts of citrus orchardists home gardeners and commercial growers.

Citrus growers are apprehensive of the effect of the continued warm weather because buds on orange trees will soon take shape unless the weather changes, only to be damaged by possible lower temperatures later, deputies have reported to Farm Commissioner Harold J. Ryan.

Deciduous fruit trees are liable to even greater damage than the citrus in the event of frosty weather later, as they are responding more quickly to the effects of the unusually generous sunshine, according to the Farm Bureau.

The earliest Wistaria Fete on record opened on St. Patrick's Day, March 17, three years ago. Since that time the city's great vine has burst into bloom and the Fete begun during the last two weeks of March. In other days the festival was usually held in April.

Drama Guild To Include All Ages

Big Apple, and all types of modern ballroom dancing. There will also be ballet and physical culture groups. These classes will meet four times a month and once a month there will be an hour of ballroom instruction followed by an evening of social dancing.

It is hoped by the sponsors of this concerted movement in the twin arts of the drama and the dance to make this a community undertaking. It is expected that former members of the Old Community Players and the Sierra Madre Drama League will enthusiastically return to take an active part in the work of the senior group.

Soil Erosion May Force Replanting Of U. S. Forests

Donald Sinclair, San Dimas experimental station chief, in a surprise appearance at the American Legion meeting Monday night, told the legionnaires of the advanced methods of soil erosion employed in Europe.

Mr. Sinclair recently completed a government sponsored tour of Germany, Austria, Italy and Switzerland to make a thorough study of soil erosion prevention. The forests of Europe are nearly all man-made, he said, and the U.S. is now in the position that Europe was in several hundred years ago, when she found her forests decimated, and was forced to replant.

Other interesting facts brought out by Mr. Sinclair was that Germany forces youths of pre-military age to spend a year in forestry work, and that Germany is endeavoring to become entirely self-supporting through her forests. She now makes alcohol, sugar, cloth and many other products from wood pulp, he said.

FIRE FLAMES

By One of The Boys

A HEAVY rain prevented our outside drill Friday evening, but the discussions inside made up for anything that might have been lost at a drill. The firemen felt honored by having the responsibility of joining the "triple alliance"—a fire fighting compact with our neighboring cities, Arcadia and Monrovia. The members all agreed heartily in forming the alliance. The three cities joining together means that at any time when one or the other city needs help to fight a stubborn fire, one or the other or both can be called on for assistance.

Lowering of the insurance rates may not mean much to the citizens at first glance, but if they take time to figure it out, it means a tremendous saving. Everywhere you go, the talk is horses and the fire department is no exception. Joe Swanson was telling the boys that he picked four winners for Friday, but when someone suggested that he treat the crowd, that same old story, "Yes, but I didn't play them," was heard.

A letter of resignation from Roy Walsworth was read at our meeting, much to the regret of all present. For business reasons he left the city and was compelled to give up his membership. He will be retained as an honorary member.

Church Unity Urged At Meeting Of Woman's Society

The pattering raindrops on Tuesday did not prevent a good attendance at the luncheon of the Woman's Society at the Congregational church where everyone had a wonderful time. Inside the decorations were lovely. The program was excellent. Mrs. Warren Preston's section served luncheon. Mrs. George Morgridge struck a reverent note in the memorial she gave to Mrs. Clara Kortkamp, deceased member. And an impressive installation service for new members was conducted by Mrs. W. S. Hull, the candle-light ceremony being used.

Current events were handled by Mrs. H. C. Reavis, who stressed greater unity of churches here and abroad. Miss Lucille Sparks conducted the devotions. Miss Mae Mae Fuller delighted all with her solo, "Standing on the Portals."

Carol Green Wilson's "Chinatown Quest," describing the work of Donaldina Cameron among the Chinese slave girls in San Francisco's Chinatown, was received with great interest. Mrs. W. H. Wilhelm gave the review.

It will cost no more to have a reliable concern do your work and it will be completed in a better way. —(adv.)

ROBERT AINSWORTH

Architect

"Isn't it beautiful," is the common expression when we pass a beautiful structure. However this supreme beauty is the result of careful planning and serious work on the part of an architect. Beauty to the businessman means increased business and to the home owner it means increased value.

The architect plays such an important part in the beauty of any structure that it should be entrusted only to one well versed in the field of practical experience as well as education, such as Robert Ainsworth. If you are contemplating building call him at Te 8641 or see him in the Central Bldg., Pasadena. —(adv.)

WYATT PET ANIMAL HOSPITAL

Doctor Wyatt, located in Pasadena at 28 Valley St., which is three blocks South of Colorado St., just west of Fair Oaks Ave., phone Co 4721, is a prominent professional man who has attained great popularity with the people of this entire community through his ability to keep their pets in the best of health.

He renders expert hospital care and excellent service in clipping, stripping and bathing. Dr. Wyatt has made a study of this business from the educational side as well as in the field of practical experience. —(adv.)

BIBBER EXTERMINATION CO.

The people of this community are fortunate in having at their service the Bibber Extermination Co., located in Pasadena at 1659 North Garfield Ave., phone St 6812.

They have for many years been doing expert extermination work in this part of the state and are considered outstanding experts in the line of exterminating pests of all kinds.

They have installed all of the latest and most improved equipment to take care of your exterminating work to the highest degree of satisfaction at the most moderate price.

There is a reason for the popularity of the Bibber Extermination Co. Call them for an estimate and you will find out why they have become so popular. —(adv.)

The WEEKLY CONSTITUTIONAL

by MAX BERN

The People's Protection

Have we any protection against acts unauthorized by our Constitution?

Under our Constitution, "we the people" are supreme. We are the principal and we create the Congress and make it our agent with power to act within the limitations we enumerate in our charter, but with no power to go beyond those limits. In addition we specifically prohibit it from certain acts.

Under these conditions, what recourse do "we the people" have if the Congress, as our agent, exceeds the limits we specify or enacts legislation which we specifically prohibit? If left to itself to determine such a case, the Congress naturally would approve its own acts. It would not pass an act and disapprove it. Thus the agent would authorize what the principal prohibits.

To prevent this, "we the people," in our Constitution, provide the simple means commonly provided where the principal challenges the acts of his agent in court. The court—in the case of our Constitution, a federal court and finally the Supreme Court—tries the case by hearing both sides. If the Court finds the agent's act in accordance with the agent's power, the act is upheld. But

If the Court finds that the agent acted beyond his authority the Court so states, whence such act is declared unauthorized, and therefore void, or in other words unconstitutional.

If the Congress as the people's agent had power to exceed the people's Constitution, such a Constitution would be useless. To prevent this and protect ourselves against unauthorized acts by our agent, "we the people" make our Constitution "the supreme law" and we create and empower the Supreme Court to construe or pass upon it.

Girl Tennis Champion Visits Here

Mary K. Browne, of Cleveland, former tennis champion of the United States, arrived Thursday by motor to spend the next two months visiting her sister, Mrs. Ruth E. Irish, 135 E. Laurel avenue, and seeing the sights of Southern California.

Miss Browne, after turning professional, toured the United States with Suzanne Lenglen, French tennis star, in 1926, in company with her sister, Mrs. Irish. She also recalled playing exhibition matches in Sierra Madre on the estate of Mrs. W. J. Lawless during the world war while touring with Molla Mallory for the benefit of the Red Cross.

Tennis is not the only sport at which Miss Browne excels for she is also of championship calibre in the world of golf. She attained the rare distinction of reaching the finals in two national tournaments of golf and tennis, several years ago, and was just recently cited because of it by John Hix in his "Strange as it Seems" syndicated column.

While in the Southland, Miss Browne expects to compete in the Women's Midwinter Golf Tournament sometime next month to be held at the Los Angeles Country Club.

WINTER VISITOR DECIDES TO MAKE HIS HOME HERE

Mr. Lauren Maltby of Chicago, Ill., was a dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Lieben of 632 W. Montecito avenue on Sunday. Mr. Maltby intends to send for his family soon and settle in Sierra Madre permanently. This will be a great joy to the Liebens, who are old friends.

Leading Books Of The Day, Including Lee Shippey's New Novel Are Added To Library's Circulating List

Lee Shippey's new novel, "The Great American Family" is among the many interesting new books just added to the circulating list of the Sierra Madre public library, along with Stuart Cloete's "Turning Wheels," the much discussed South African book, and Clare Boothe's play, "The Women," that will soon be on the boards in Los Angeles, and that is said to disclose all of the women's feline traits.

Other new books catalogued for this month are "Death Over Hollywood," Saxby; "To See Ourselves," Field; "Los Empires," Chevalier; "They Seek a Country," Fahnestock; "O'Flaherty," "Short Stories," Mansfield; "Enemy Gods," LaFarge; "Imperial City," Rice; "Katrina," Salminen; and "Flowering Aloe," Stevenson.

Salome's tomb—

"Madam Curie," by her daughter

ter Eve Curie, and "Apes, Men and Morons" by Ernest Hooton, the misanthropic college professor, heads the list of non-fiction books for January. Others are "Good Society," Lippman; "How to Write for a Living," White; "The Arts," VanLoon; "Saga of American Society," Westcott; "Cleopatra," Ludwig; and in the drama section, "Star Wagon," Anderson; "200 Were Chosen," Conkle; "Best Plays of 1936-37," Mantle, complete the list.

Miss Lulu H. Moore, librarian, reported a total circulation for December of 4,263 with 3,526 adults books and 737 juvenile books circulated. In the adult section 54 per cent of the circulated books was fiction, and 28 per cent non-fiction. Thirty-five new patrons registered for borrowers' privileges during the month.

LEGIONNAIRES WILL BOOST CONSERVATION

Conservation committee members of the American Legion, Sierra Madre Post 297, will meet January 28, in the Legion Hall, 131 North Marengo avenue, Pasadena, with Frank Drew, chairman of the State Legion Conservation Commission, presiding, to discuss plans for a statewide conservation program.

This will be the first of two major gatherings which Mr. Drew is calling this year. The purpose of the meeting is to start a movement in California to make the public conservation conscious, according to Mr. Drew.

THINKING ABOUT A NEW Refrigerator?

SERVEL ELECTROLUX

is silent, saves more because it freezes with no moving parts

THE Gas REFRIGERATOR GIVES YOU...

- Low running cost
- Years of satisfaction
- Lasting efficiency
- Savings that pay for it

Are you planning soon to get your second refrigerator? Or your first? In either case, you can profit by the experience of more than a million families who own Servel Electrolux. They have found that the gas refrigerator is always silent, always economical. And here's why: There are no moving parts in the entire freezing system of a Servel Electrolux. Nothing to wear or become inefficient, nothing that can make noise.
